

PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS
AND
ARCHIVAL POLICY

PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS AND ARCHIVAL POLICY

1. PREAMBLE

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”), vide its Notification dated September 2, 2015, issued the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (Listing Regulations). The Listing Regulations mandate listed entities to formulate a Policy for preservation and archiving of documents. It is in this context that the Preservation of Documents and Archival Policy is framed.

2. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

Regulation 9 of the Listing Regulations mandates that a listed entity shall have a policy for preservation of documents, approved by its board of directors, classifying them in at least two categories as follows:

- a) Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature;
- b) Documents with preservation period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions.

Provided that the listed entity may keep documents specified in clauses (a) and (b) in electronic mode. Further Regulation 30 (8) of the Listing Regulations also refers to an archival policy as per which all events or information which has been disclosed to stock exchange(s) under Regulation 30 shall be hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of five years and thereafter as per the archival policy of the company. Besides the above, as per applicable provisions of Companies Act, 2013 certain documents are required to be preserved permanently or upto a certain prescribed time. Accordingly this policy is being framed keeping in view particularly the requirements of Listing Regulations and the provisions of Companies Act, 2013.

3. CLASSIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS TO BE PRESERVED / RETAINED

The classification of documents to be retained and preserved for posterity are as follows:

- Documents that need to be preserved / retained permanently – Doc 1
- Documents that may be preserved / retained for a period of 8 years as specified under the Companies Act, 2013 or Listing Regulations – Doc 2.
- Documents to be preserved electronically and archived when necessary- Doc 3.
- Documents that may be required by judicial proceedings and which may be destroyed after closure of the legal case – Doc 4.
- Documents like budget papers etc., which may be retained for less than 8 years – Doc 5.

4. PRINCIPLE OF RESPONSIBILITY OF EMPLOYEES FOR PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

All the employees in the permanent rolls of the Company are responsible for taking into account the potential impacts on preservation of the documents in their work area and their decision to retain / preserve or destroy documents pertaining to their area. Such policy bestowing responsibility on the Company's employees would immensely help company's litigation preparedness tool helping the Company's and outside legal counsel to track down documents to handle the legal cases.

5. PERIODICAL REVIEW OF THE POLICY BY TOP MANAGEMENT

The Policy should be flexible and easy to understand and comply with by all levels of employees. The policy should be reviewed periodically by the Top Management and amendments effected to subject to approval of the Board if and when practical difficulties are encountered. The Top Management may also review the policy on document retention to comply with any local, state, central legislation that may be promulgated from time to time.

6. ADMINISTRATION

The Record Retention Schedule for initial maintenance, retention and disposal schedule for physical records is as given in the Attachment-1.

7. RIGHT TO ACCESS/RETRIEVE

The Company Secretary and his subordinate (direct report) in the Secretarial Department shall have the right of access to the Listing Records.

8. ARCHIVAL POLICY

Any disclosure of events or information which have been submitted by the Company to the Stock Exchanges under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations will be available on the website of the Company for a period of 5 years from the date of its disclosure and shall thereafter be archived from the website of the company for a period of 3 years on the advice of the concerned Functional / Department / Group Head.

9. PERSON RESPONSIBLE

The Company Secretary shall be responsible for ensuring compliance under this Policy.

10. MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS

Department Heads or their delegated representatives must check regularly all records, documents and files in their respective departments.

- i) to weed out unwanted materials; and
- ii) to decide which records other than those having a statutory retention period are to be kept and for how long.

Each Department shall designate an employee of his department who shall assume overall responsibility for

- i) removing records which are to be preserved in the Record Centre, periodically;
- ii) storing records properly; and
- iii) retrieving records

Only one copy of each record or document has to be retained. As a general rule, only RECORDS ORIGINATING IN THE DEPARTMENT, except third-party record, need be kept.

11. STORAGE OF RECORDS

Records for the current year plus for the preceding year as well as frequently referred records are to be kept in the Department concerned.

Records which are to be retained for more than two years are to be removed to Records Centre at the end of the financial year.

Inactive records shall be sent periodically for incineration. A list of records to be destroyed shall be prepared and approved by the Department Head. Mechanical (Planning) Department will co-ordinate destruction of records with the help of janitors.

Statutory books and records with a permanent retention period will be kept under the safe custody of the General Manager (P&A).

12. RECORDS CENTRE

Storage space for records has been provided in the Technical Building. Records are to be sent to the Centre properly filed or secured and clearly marked as to

- a) Department / Section
- b) Record title and identification number, if any
- c) Range and period covered
- d) Date and mode of disposal

A "TRANSMITTAL LIST" shall be prepared and the shelf location number where the record is stored shall be written on this list.

The Transmittal List shall be consulted while asking for reference service.

13. RECORDS COMMITTEE

The Chairman and Managing Director shall constitute, at a future date, a Record Committee to study the problem of record retention and preservation. The policy should be reviewed periodically and amendment effected to subject to Board's approval, if and when practical difficulties are encountered. The Committee will consist of the following members:

General Manager (P&A)	-	Secretary of the Committee
General Manager (M&D)	-	Member
Internal Auditor	-	Member
Dy. General Manager (P&A)	-	Member
Dy. General Manager (Production)	-	Member
Dy. General Manager (Materials Management)	-	Member
Dy. General Manager (Technical Services)	-	Member

The Committee will inquire specifically into:

- a) the type of protection needed for records depending on the real value of the records to the Company's business
- b) improvement needed in the policy from time to time due to changes in Central and State Laws.

14. DISPOSAL OF RECORDS

Physical records disposed of pursuant to the preservation periods shall be disposed of using a cross-cut shredder. The Records Section of the respective Departments shall adopt appropriate procedures to permanently dispose of any non-paper physical records, such as photographs or audio / video recordings.

In the event that it is necessary to manually dispose of an electronic record, the MIS Department shall use the "permanent delete" function to permanently dispose of electronic records.

The concerned Functional / Department / Group Head shall decide the records which are to be destroyed. A list containing details of records destroyed / disposed, date of disposal and mode of disposal shall be maintained.

15. HOLD ON RECORD DESTRUCTION AND DELETION

If a lawsuit or other proceeding involving the Company is reasonably foreseeable, all destruction of any possibly relevant documents, including e-mail, must cease immediately. Documents relating to the lawsuit or potential legal issue will be then retained and organized under the supervision of the Legal Head. In the event of a Document Hold Direction, the MIS Department shall immediately disable the “permanent delete” and “automatic delete” functions of the Company’s software with respect to the designated records and disable the automatic deletion of recycle bins and deleted items folders on appropriate Company computers; the Records Section of the respective Departments shall immediately suspend all disposition of records maintained on-site or off-site location as appropriate; and the Legal Head shall immediately notify all appropriate employees by e-mail that they are not to dispose of relevant Temporary Records or other records until notified otherwise.

16. DISCLOSURE / AMENDMENT

This policy as amended from time to time shall be made available at the website of the Company. The right to interpret / amend / modify this policy vests with the Board of Directors of the Company.

This Policy shall be effective from the date of approval by the Board of Directors.
